We received this week to assort up our midsummer stock, 75 suits and 100 pairs of Pants.
Like the camine our pants are loudest during dog days. If you don't want loud raxTs we have still small patterns which instill feeling of content and satisfaction to the wearer. If you lay from us you will be sure to get a fit, also a fitting price. There'll be no breeches of promise on our part (credit) and our promises are all as reliable as our breeches. As a fitting clothes to this article we may as well admit it was written by a lean and slippery pant-a-loon.

Togosto, Aug. 20. Over two bundred Ontario farmers left hast night on the farmers' excursion for Mu itobs. Among them is a special ear of delegates from Waterloo country who are going up to look over the country. A doorn almond eyed celestials also left in the colonist train. They are taking the trip with a view to settling down in the far west should it prove a more enticing quarter than Ontario. The doorn who took their departure last night are delegates from various strongholds of Chunese in Canada, and should they report favorably a large exit of celestials may be expected.

IN MEMORIAM.

It is with sineere regret we have to record the death of Margaret, the beroved wife of Alexander Trotter, of this city. The deceased haly had been an invalid for some considerable time, but latterly or some considerable time, but latterly her sufferings, borne with Christian fortitude, became very severe, and continued to till the Angel of Death called her away from this earlidy home to the Mansions of Eternal Rest, to the intense grief of a bereaved and sorrowing husband and a young family.

Of her, it may truly be raid, life was one with suffering, but borne with patient submission to the Divine Will and with the calm assurance and crowning consolation of Salvation through the merits of our blessed Redeemer. Her end was Peace. Peace with her dear Lord and Master.

The quain is the first in her Lather's family, one of ten, the renaining nine all being present at the deathbed.

The Funeral Service was held at the residence, and was confucted by the Rev. A. Uppthart, her pastor, and the Rev. J. Colter, of Rapid City, both of whom suitably addressed the mourners on the whom services.

He has a wife who is well-known to her children as a strict disciplinarian. One evening, so the story goes, she heard a noise in the largery after bel-time. She promptly spized her slipper and started for the seen of the upons. Just as she reached the door the children extinguished the light. Stretching out her hand she captured one of the boys and to judge from the outeries he made the spanking was thoroughly effectives. Bus-the mother was somewhat surprised at the conduct of the second sufferer. Instead of solbling, he yelled protestations in a strong voice and at last swore roundly. The mother, astonished, jumped up, and letting him fall from her knee to the floor exclaimed, tendrely. "Is that you, hubby?" Overshelmed with confusion, he ad-mitted that it was her 'hubby' she had been spanking. After they had restried and the mailled Lugdete of the chil-

The Awful Time the Night Clerk Had with No. 17.

A nice-looking young matron came in on a late train the other night, and falling to find some friends she had in the city, went to a hotel and ordered a room, says the Petroit Free Press. When two showed her to it she asked a good many questions and examined the look so in the doors and windows and had the boys book, under the lead and in the wardrole for any left-over traveler of burgins. Who inright be look and and the boys book under the led and in the wardrole for any left-over traveler of burgins. Who inright be look and went away for the night.

A little after midnight a boil fare look is a state of the light clerk, who hurried up to room 17.

Have you any precautions against fire? asked a muffled voice on the other side of the legend door.

The over lifetabled the while system of fire apparatus in the house, and added, as a clincher.

There's a fire escape leading from your window, madame, to the sidewaik; it is as easy to get down as roll ig off a log.

A short time ago a prominent young Englishman of Elton engaged a young lady by the name of Miss——, as house keeper. She endly remained three days to whath he had to pay the everletant oun of forty follars. She say, herself, hat housekeepers should have big pay chee there are such promises of a good arvest.

A take of a newspaper on 12th street we appeared to the continuous propers of the half holiday until then. The ching meyor has also changed the date of the half holiday until then to complete their arrangement and on Tuesday, the party varing the letter omitted game their name to it. It is not every ead that is able to declare a singular oun requires a plural pomoun to fold or. But then it is a "singular" institution analysay. This is like the three Tooy street tailors declaring they were the optic of England.

The Wontreal Gazette says the apple and peach crops of Manitolia will be pather short this year. We admit the apple of England.

The Wannipeg Tribune has got crop estray from 33 correspondents at any power in the presence. The high vield of wheat is placed at 30 to 45 the best 18 making an average of bashes.
